U.S. Army Veteran
Thomas Skinner
is bicycling from California to Vermont with his service dog Scrubs to raise awareness about Post Traumatic Stress Disorder.

Skinner will present “What Comes After Welcome Home,” a program that covers his personal experience with service-related PTSD and ideas for welcoming returning veterans into our community. A staggering number of service members returning from the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan suffer with PTSD. PTSD is not a weakness. Raising awareness about PTSD to reduce the associated stigma is the focus of Skinner’s 3500-mile cross-country mission.
